Residential

South Shore Marina, North Bethany, Delaware

Exceptional coastal home with incredible views of the wide open bay and private community marina from nearly every room of this waterfront property in North Bethany. This gorgeous retreat features an impressive great room overlooking the waterfront and offers beautiful LVP flooring, gas fireplace, and opens to a large bayfront porch. The gourmet kitchen with a large island is centrally located between the living and dining areas and opens to the large screened porch with a built-in grill, stove top, and sink, offering the ideal layout for entertaining both indoors and out. The primary bedroom suite offers stunning views of the bay through double glass doors that open to a large sun deck overlooking the water. The oversized garage spans the entire footprint of the home and offers a half bathroom and additional garage doors that open on the back, leading to a covered patio and outdoor shower. Situated in a private gated community in North Bethany with a deep water marina, and boat slips available for purchase. Spend the day on the water, with direct access to the Indian River Inlet, or take a short bike ride to the beach without having to cross over Route One to spend the day on the beach or to enjoy a fabulous dinner at the oceanfront restaurant.
