3 Bedroom, 3 Bathroom,
Residential

Preserve at Irons Landing, Dagsboro, Delaware

Beautifully renovated single story home located just a few miles to the beach! This spacious home offers a desirable open concept floor plan combining the living room, kitchen and dining area and opening to a large wrap-around porch and screened porch, creating the ideal layout for entertaining. The great room is bright and airy with vaulted ceilings, freshly painted walls, and beautiful new vinyl plank flooring. The kitchen features a large center island with seating and has been wonderfully updated with new quartz countertops, cabinets painted a crisp white, and new fridge, disposal, and microwave have been installed. The primary bedroom offers a walk-in closet and large bathroom with dual sinks, soaking tub, and separate shower. Two additional spacious bedrooms share another full bathroom and a half bathroom is just off the great room. Additional conveniences include new exterior lighting, 2 car garage, outside shower, and a conditioned crawl space. Situated on a corner lot, this home is just steps to the pool and playground in the quiet community of Preserve at Irons Landing, and just minutes to the Indian River Bay and Cripple Creek Golf Course.
