5 Bedroom, 5 Bathroom, 4,100 sqft
Residential on 1 Acres

Refuge at Dirickson Creek, Selbyville, Delaware

Impressive waterfront home offering a level of privacy that is hard to match and expansive views of the bay from nearly every room. This property is located just a few miles to the beach in Fenwick Island. Situated on one of the largest waterfront parcels in the community, this property is more than 1 acre in size and has a private path to launch kayaks or SUP boards and the potential to add a private pool. The expansive waterfront deck was doubled in size in 2020 and metal railings were replaced with glass to fully appreciate 180 degrees of Dirickson's Creek with no neighbor impeding the view. Step inside this gorgeous home and enjoy the wide-open great room and gourmet kitchen that was renovated in 2021 with new counter tops, backsplash and brand-new appliances including a gas range. This thoughtfully designed home features a first-floor bayfront primary bedroom suite and a spacious office or den. Upstairs offers 4 additional bedrooms and 3 tastefully finished bathrooms as well as an expansive deck with dramatic views from every corner. Outfitted with hurricane shutters on the top floor and new exterior lighting, no upgrade was spared during the initial construction of this special property and the owners have continued to meticulously maintain and update this property at a high level. Additional key features include irrigation, an over-sized two car garage with loft storage, new washer and dryer, wifi enabled thermostats, new solar shades in the first-floor common area plus surround sound in the living room and outdoor speakers. Situated on a quiet cul-de-sac with the ability to walk or bike to supermarkets, Freeman Stage and Bayside Golf course, the community offers many amenities including a swimming pool, fitness center, tennis courts, volleyball, basketball, pickleball and kayak storage. The community's boat launch into Dirickson's Creek will take you to the Assawoman Bay, C&D Canal and Atlantic Ocean. Offered mostly furnished, this one-of-a-kind dream home is ready to be yours!
